

Ivans Download™ gives you instant digital access to your carrier and MGA partners' data.

Ivans Download automates the exchange of claims and policy information between you and your carrier and MGA partners so the latest details are instantly available.

Instead of waiting on paper, Ivans Download instantly sends you the latest policy, claims and other documents – including those massive declarations pages – the minute they're available. You don't even have to leave your management system to get them. In addition to saving time and money, you'll step up your customer experience with timely and effective service.

“We've made a big push on digital delivery and we're seeing an increase in eDocs and Messages month-over-month as well. There are so many advantages for agents to help their specific workflows.”
